Matnas Shabbos

Beginning last Erev Shabbos, talmidim grades one through three gathered to soak up the varimkeit of Shabbos! The Matnas Shabbos Program is here to imbue the warmth, geshmak and beauty of Shabbos through learning niggunim, hearing Shabbos stories, raffles, and more! The weekly pamphlet, YDN's Gift to You, which was handed out and will be given to the talmidim weekly, are there to help our little Shabbos yinglech remember the Shabbos songs and story and even sing it at their own Shabbos seuda. Parents use these pamphlets at the Shabbos table too, singing the songs with their children, and together experiencing the joy and beauty of Shabbos. Taking the already exciting program to the next level, Rabbi Rawicki raffled off Shabbos books to enjoy for a Shabbos, take home your own challah, and every talmid received his own two candles for his mother to light. Look out for next week's exciting surprises!

Thank you to Dr. and Mrs. Book for sponsoring this month's Rosh Chodesh treat, lilui nishmas Yutta bas R' Yosef Baruch a'h beloved grandmother of seventh grader Yossi and fourth grader Chanoch Book.

APPRECIATING HASHEM'S CREATION

Right before Succos, the eighth grade went on a hike in Kakiat Park. It was beautiful to see our wonderful talmidim hiking together and assisting one another as they trekked past beautiful views and vistas. The סגן ראש הישיבה Rabbi Brodie led the way as the talmidim got to enjoy the great view from the fire tower, and then splashed their way through the waterfall and stream. Special Thank you to Rabbi Brodie for taking them, as well as to Ari Goldstein for chaperoning.

Giving is Getting

Pre 1a was able to fill an entire tzaedaka box thanks to all of the דקה which has been brought in. Morah testified: "We have never had a class fill it so fast". The entire class went up to Rabbi Rawicki to present him with the דקה box. He was very impressed and gave each boy a prize. T i z k u L'mitzvos!

Parental Pride!

Dear Rabbi Rawicki,

I just wanted to let you know that I am absolutely BLOWN AWAY by the projects that our son brought home for RJH! I feel so fortunate that he goes to such a special Yeshiva! Thank you and the YDN for everything!!!

May your family have a ksiva vchasima tova!

Have a wonderful Shabbos and Yom Tov!

-A grateful Parent!
