Darchei Doings at a Glance

Glitter here,
Glitter there
Glitter, glitter
Everywhere!!

Why?!

We find it on our hands
We find it on our clothes
It is on our desks,
hand – rails, & mezuzahs,
My gosh! It was even on someone's nose!

What is the reason for all this glitter?
We think Nurse Aimee knows...
Tell us how to get it off our hands
And please!
Make sure we don't have to use the fire hose!!

Breakfast Specials!

Rabbi Peikes' eighth graders got to enjoy a Breakfast Special to mark the culmination of an entire term of no talking during davening!

This means they passed the period that it takes to form a habit, putting our talmidim on the road to no talking by davening for their entire life! Talmidim, you're on the right path!

Siyum with Pas Shacharis

Rabbi Biller's third graders celebrated the siyum on Parshas Vayishlach with a massive breakfast! The siyum was a smashing success! The boys enjoyed the bagels, omelets, potatoes, spreads, drinks and more. Throughout the breakfast, the boys sat beautifully in a square and schmoozed with geshmak. The boys also sang so beautifully; it was gevaldig! Hashem should help they should continue on this path and grow up to be big talmidei chachomim and make many many more siyumim.

A "Learning Drill"

What a Kiddush Hashem! Last week, in the middle of learning, the fire alarm went off. The entire yeshiva quickly and quietly went outside. After attendance was taken Rabbi Plotzker, with his talmidim, began to review from the beginning of the perek by heart. Rabbi Plotzker managed to get his gemara and then began, while outside in the cold to be warmed up by the aish haTorah. They reviewed the entire first עמוד of מציוות. When they got to the bottom of the עמוד they broke out in song and dance thanking Hashem for the zechus we have to learn His special Torah. Rabbi Plotzker was so proud of them and we're sure that Hashem was too.

Rabbi Myski's first graders reviewing Chumash in a fun way.

Are you a כהן גדול?

In Rabbi Lowy's talmidim learned how the young כהנים would make sure the כהן גדול doesn't fall asleep, by snapping their fingers and asking the כהן גדול to stand bare foot on the marble floor. All of sudden we had a class full of כהנים!
