Wow! Another Siyum!

Mazal Tov! Rabbi Myski's first graders celebrated yet another siyum. And this siyum on perek י"ג of parshas לך לך was really special! Yeshivas Ohr Reuven's Menahel, Rabbi Medetsky, came to speak to the boys and asked them questions on the perek they learned. He and Rabbi Myski were so proud of how well they knew their material. Each boy then received a black and white cookie with his name on it. All in all, a wonderful siyum!

Mishmor Does it Again!

Rabbi Peikes and all the mishmor participants did it again! They celebrated a siyum for finishing the first Perek of Megilla. The siyum was sponsored by the Muller and Resnick families. Thank you for the donuts, nosh, soda and home-made poppers!

Going Skiing!

Talmidim of the seventh grade classes had the opportunity to go on a terrific skiing trip in celebration of reviewing Perek Hakones six times. The long awaited trip has finally arrived, and those talmidim that participated in the review went on this incredible trip. The weather was beautiful and sunny, and everyone had a blast! Restaurants and ski slopes were enjoyed by all that earned it. Thank you to seventh grade rebbe, Rabbi Prupas for chaperoning!

"No talmid will be left behind". Talmidim from both seventh grades that were still in Yeshiva, had a day of chazzara. Through the seventh grades various "Kagan activities", they reviewed well over half of the perek! Rabbi Schuster was super impressed with how well the two classes blended together to learn bahasmada.

Parental Pride

"I heard from a Rebbe who's been working in a big Monsey camp for years that the most disciplined, well behaved campers each summer- out of all of the schools- are the boys from Yeshiva Darchei Noam. He says that it's true year after year."

-Mrs. Nadav, Preschool Morah and YDN parent!

Rabbi Myski - thank you so much for taking the time to produce this (Kriah) power point review. Our son loves going over it and BH my time doing home-work with him is enjoyed by the both of us. His Kriah is improving every day, and I love doing Shnayim Mikrah with him because he points out shorashim and similar words in his chumash learning in the weekly sedrah. Thank you so much for working so hard for all the talmidim. Beyedidus, A grateful parent
