Torah Umesorah Convention

aptly captured the feeling of our principals and many rebbeim who were to attend parts or all of the Torah Umesorah Convention this past weekend at the Kalahari Resort, Poconos Pennsylvania. From Shaalos U'Teshuvos from Roshei Yeshiva to the many concurrent workshops on multiple areas of chinuch, and excellent networking opportunities, YKOR rebbelim gained tremendously from the Fourth Grade Talmidim practicing חפינת הקטורת

Rabbi Lowy's fourth graders practiced one of the most difficult bitot in the Beit Hamikdash. Every talmid had a turn to practice it, and actually realize how difficult it really was not to lose one drop of qotoret.

Sharing the Excitement

Rabbi Pruzansky's second graders had the privilege of visiting and reciting the krias shma by their classmate Chaim Tzvi Eisenstadt's new baby brother. With much excitement they hurried on to the bus and quietly entered Chaim Tzvi's house. Forming a circle, with the baby in the middle, the second grade talmidim loudly recited the krias shma, giving Rabbi Pruzansky much nachas. They got such beautiful pekelech remembering of course, to say a proper thank you and mazal tov. Mazal tov to Chaim Tzvi and his family. May they see much nachas from this new addition to the family and all their children.

Nachas Notes

Last Sunday, Yeshaya Vilinsky, together with Chaim Tzvi Eisenstadt and Zevy Deutch, made a snow cone/lemonade/cookie stand at our house. B" H they had lots of customers, and were busy with it for over 2 hours! Towards the end of the sale, a van of "tzedaka men" came to our street. Without being told or asked, the boys took from the money that they had just earned, and ran to the men to give them tzedaka. When they were leaving, the boys took more of what they earned and gave them again. We were so proud and wanted to share this special story with you. Thank you for the wonderful chinuch that you provide daily for Yeshaya and all his friends.
-Mrs. Vilinsky

Dear Parents,

In this day and age taking a picture of your child is no longer a trip to the studio but rather accessible from the palm of your hand by using your cell phone, digital camera, etc.

Over the past few years when photo technology has dramatically changed, we at YKOR have seen a dramatic decrease in parents that order individual student pictures. Nevertheless, we know that parents (and students) like to have a memento from their son's year at school. Therefore, בעזרה שלי"ת we will be having class pictures (only) taken on Monday, May 15th.

The price for a class picture is as follows:

- 1 Picture: $12.00
- 2+ Pictures: $10.00 per picture

Please indicate below your interest...
