A Well Spent Vacation

Over midwinter vacation, many eighth graders elected to take part in the Chazarah Program which includes a substantial amount of learning and reviewing. Twenty-nine students learned the entire first perek of Makkos consisting of six blatt. Half of the students included the rashi on the six blatt as well. Some even did every tosfos along with it.

The boys were rewarded with a trip to doughies and were allowed to spend according to how much time they learned. Thank you to the Resnick and Silverman families for their sponsorship.

Winners Corner

After a few weeks of Rabbi Biller's third graders practicing the ברכה על המזיה, by heart and getting tested on it, Rabbi Biller raffled off an impressive על המזיה plaque. The winner of this fitting award was Binyamin Lamstein.

After months of collecting charts for Lively Learning and Dazzling Davening, Rabbi Biller raffled off a remote-control car. The lucky winner was Zevy Deutch.

Sunday Super Seder

This past Sunday evening the Yeshiva hosted a Super Seder event. Talmidim from the eighth grade and meviva joined together to learn. They were accompanied by numerous fathers and siblings, all of whom were invited to attend, along with many others in the community as well. The extended night seder was arranged in order to be mechazek lumud ha'Torah during a time that otherwise might have been missing the koach haTorah.

As a chizuk and to show chashivus for the bochurim and the others who joined in the learning, there was an impressive spread of food provided for after the huge Kidush Hashem that took place during the learning Super Seder event.

All talmidim in grades first through eighth were bubbling with joy on Thursday, January 25. Each of them had the opportunity to visit The Bubble, before leaving for midwinter break.
