Rabbi Prupas' 7th grade class sent a menorah to a boy their age who lost his whole family in the massacre.

"I thought it was so special how the boys chipped in and we sent a beautiful silver menorah, and Becher to Ariel Zohar, whose family was murdered on October 7 massacre, and he was only a few days before his bar mitzvah. We thought it would be apropos to have a bar mitzvah class share in his pain and send him something. My husband and Akiva picked it out themselves and we sent it to Israel yesterday and we were in touch with people who know the boy. The class sent a video with a letter along with the gift. Beautiful example of caring for our brothers in Klal yisroel."
